

Sheff Law Hosts MassCOSH Event

Sheff Law recently hosted an event for the Massachusetts Coalition for Occupational Safety and Health (MassCosh) regarding Workers' Rights and Safety in the workplace.

The event featured speeches by Marcy Goldstein-Gelb, Executive Director of MassCosh and by guest speaker, Attorney General Martha Coakley. Attorney General Coakley discussed the latest efforts to end labor trafficking and the efforts to ensure that Massachusetts workers receive fair compensation under the law.

*Doug Sheff with guest speaker Attorney General
Martha Coakley*

SHEFF NOTES

Sheff Law's top victories for the seriously injured

$6,000,000.00 (Wheel Off Case) settlement for a sixty-seven year old woman who was struck in the head by a wheel which disengaged from a vehicle traveling in the opposite direction. Our firm's investigation uncovered evidence of prior similar incidents. We retained an accident reconstructionist and several medical and liability experts who were prepared to offer opinions as to fault and permanence of injuries.

$7,000,000.00 (Explosion Case) for the family of a man who was killed by a compressed air explosion due to unsafe working conditions received a settlement in the amount of Sheff Law represented his wife and children in the lawsuit. The settlement was one of the largest recoveries in the context of a workplace accident in Massachusetts history.

$9,800,000.00 (Brain Injury Case) for a forty-five year old woman who was seriously brain damaged. Our firm was prepared to call seven expert witnesses to testify as to liability and extent of the damages, including one of the world's leading brain injury experts.