

*Experience,
Compassion
&
Integrity*

SHEFF LAW

March 2012
Edition

Doug Sheff gives a presentation at a local worker's rights advocacy group.

RECENT RESULTS FOR SHEFF LAW CLIENTS:

- $750,000.00—Settlement after mediation for a student at a residential education facility who jumped from a window suffering fractures in both legs. (Attorney Frank J Federico, Jr.)
- $375,000.00—After successful mediation, settlement for a worker who slipped and fell on a slippery walkway, suffering cervical and shoulder injuries. (Attorney Donald R. Grady, Jr.)
- $300,000.00—Case settled for a high school student who suffered a mild head injury when he was hit by a school bus while crossing the street. (Attorney Stephen J. Chiasson)
- $150,000.00—Settlement arising from a motor vehicle collision resulting in neck injuries without surgery. (Attorney Adam H. Becker)

Annual Worker's Compensation Bar Reception and Dinner:

On Wednesday April 4, 2012, the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys will hold its' Annual Worker's Compensation Bar Reception and Dinner at the Newton Marriot Hotel. This event is an opportunity for lawyers and judges concerned about workplace safety, to socialize and network in a collegial environment.

Once again, SHEFF LAW is proud to SPONSOR this event. According to Doug Sheff, "Our sponsorship of this annual event permits us to express our sincere appreciation for decades of cooperative effort and referrals from members of the worker's compensation bar."

If you have a question about a third-party case arising from a workplace accident, be it a construction site accident, a premises liability case or an injury caused by a defective workplace machine, contact us at SHEFF LAW. We will work with you to aggressively secure full compensation for the injured worker.

SHEFF LAW is the newsletter of Sheff Law Offices, P.C.
Ten Tremont Street - Suite 700
The Daniel Webster Suite
Boston, MA 02108 • (617) 227-7000