Workplace Safety — Theme of recent MBA / MassCOSH event:

Douglas K. Sheff, Massachusetts Bar Association Officer and Chair of the MBA's Workplace Safety Task Force, moderated a joint MBA/MassCOSH event which spotlighted efforts of the Department of Industrial Accidents (DIA) to improve workplace safety in the Commonwealth. The event featured remarks by DIA Director Phil Hillman, who expressed the Department's commitment to improving worker safety and reducing injuries and deaths. Marcy Gelb, as Executive Director of MassCOSH, spoke about her organization, which builds coalitions throughout the Commonwealth in order to protect and assist workers. Finally, Doug Sheff described the MBA's Workplace Safety Task Force as a "diverse group of professionals dedicated to preventing injuries and deaths in the workplace." He described the event as a "natural compliment to our mission to achieve justice for injured workers and their families."
