

July 9, 2019

MEDIA CONTACT:

Dean Lieberman

978-407-1637

Rondon Family and Columbia Gas Announce Settlement

The family of Leonel Rondon, the young man who lost his life as a result of the September 13, 2018 gas explosions, and Columbia Gas of Massachusetts today announced a settlement of the family's claims against the company.

The settlement is the result of voluntary mediation between the parties. The amount of the settlement is confidential, per the terms of the agreement.

Doug Sheff, attorney for the Rondon family, stated that, “Leonel tragically lost his life when a chimney from a nearby house fell onto a car. He was only 18 years old and full of life. He loved science and had a passion for music. He dreamt of going to college and cared for his family members in every way possible. His mother, Rosaly, described Leonel as ‘the happiness of the house.’ The family can only hope that this kind of catastrophe will never happen again. Nothing can replace the loss of Leonel and the Rondons will continue to cherish his memory, his loving support and positive impact on his family and community. Sheff Law will establish a scholarship fund designed to encourage an ongoing interest in public safety and community service.”

“We remain heartbroken over the tragic loss of Leonel Rondon and again express our deepest sympathy to his family and to the entire community,” said Joe Hamrock, CEO and President of NiSource Inc., the parent company of Columbia Gas. “We recognize the pain that remains and understand that nothing we can ever say or do will bring Leonel back to his loved ones or erase that pain. Since this tragic event, we have always wanted to do the right thing for the Rondon family and all of those affected, and we are pleased to have reached this settlement. We are grateful for the opportunity to work with the Rondon family to honor Leonel through a scholarship fund, and we will continue to honor his memory.”

Columbia Gas will also set up a scholarship fund in Leonel's name, independent of the settlement announced today. The company will work with the family on its establishment in the near future.

The parties added: “We would also like to thank Brian Mone, the mediator, for his steadfast work on this matter.”